

Preparatory Courses for Bachelor of Laws (LLB) University of London International Programmes

Application for Admission

This guideline is for new applicants only.
Students who have already registered with the University of London International Programmes (UOL) are not required to apply for admission with the UOL again.

Applicants are recommended to apply for admission to the UOL before enrolling in the Preparatory Courses. The deadline for applying for admission to the UOL is 1 October 2017 for applicants who intend to sit for the LLB examinations in May/June 2018.

(I) Enrolment with SPEED

Applicants should complete the attached SPEED application form and submit it to the SPEED office at Room QR802, 8/F, Core R, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University in person or by post before the closing date for application together with the followings:

1. a crossed cheque or cashier's order payable to "The Hong Kong Polytechnic University" for the required course fee. (Please write your name and the course title at the back of the cheque or cashier's order)
2. a recent photo (size: 1" x 1.25") for Library Card

The closing date for application is 2 weeks before course commencement. Applications submitted after the closing date may be considered if vacancies exist and the tuition fee must be settled by cashier's order.

Successful applicants will receive a written notification from the School confirming their enrolment and also the details for collecting the study materials from the SPEED office before course commencement. Unsuccessful applicants will be notified in writing by the School and the cheque or cashier's order for the course fees will be returned by ordinary mail.

(II) Applying for Admission to the University of London International Programmes

Applicants may apply for admission to the UOL through one of the following ways:

(a) Submission of UOL application online:

1. Applicants should submit the UOL application online at <http://www.londoninternational.ac.uk/llb>. You are advised to read the Guidance notes (https://www.evision.eisa.london.ac.uk/documents/guidanceNotesforOnlineApplications_UG.pdf) for information about the online application process.
2. UOL will process your application upon receiving all the necessary documentation in support of your application*. UOL will inform applicants the application results directly by e-mail. It may take around 3 to 4 weeks.
3. In case there is no update on the UOL application for more than 4 weeks after submission, applicants may contact the UOL via the online enquiry form (<http://enquiries.londoninternational.ac.uk>) for checking the application status.

Verification of Documents by SPEED

Applicants will be required to upload verified copies of certificates/documents at the time you submit your online applications to the UOL. SPEED is one of the authorised institutions to verify documents on behalf of the UOL. SPEED offers this service free-of-charge to applicants who apply for our Preparatory Courses for Bachelor of Laws (LLB) at the same time.

For document verification, you are required to provide the originals and 2 sets of photocopies of all your necessary documentation in support of your application to the SPEED office at Room QR802, 8/F, Core R, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University. SPEED will then return 1 set of verified copies to you and the other set will be kept by SPEED for record. Applicants should then upload the verified copies to complete the online application.

SPEED also verifies documents at a fee of HK$150 per visit for other UOL applicants who do not study with us. The fee should be settled by Octopus at the SPEED office.

Note:

1. Our office does not provide photocopying service.
2. Verification of documents is not available at other SPEED offices (i.e. WK and HHB office).

If you hold neither a work permit nor a dependent visa, it is unlikely that the Hong Kong Immigration Department will grant you a student visa to take up a part-time programme.
