Seminar 2011:
“Critical Appraisal on the Integration of Environmental Protection, Safety and Health into Construction Industry”

Date: 31 October 2011 (Monday)
Time: 7:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Venue: Chiang Chen Studio Theatre, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, Hung Hom, Kowloon
Language: Cantonese
Certification: Certificate of Attendance with 2 Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Hours

Introduction:
Environmental protection, safety and health constitute an important and integral part of everybody’s life. The trio of the HKSAR Government, stakeholders and training institutions have made concerted efforts in the built environment to enhance environmental safety and health awareness, to reduce waste generation, to mitigate pollution and ultimately to achieve a clean and sustainable environment.

This Seminar aims at introducing the importance of training needs for the integration of environmental protection, safety and health into the construction industry. The critical role of Environmental Officer (EO) will be brought into focus and experience from different paradigms on the fulfilment of mandatory and contractual requirements will be shared at the Seminar.

Seminar Sessions:

• The General Requirements for EO in Government Construction Projects
• The Critical Role of EO in Pay for Safety & Environment Scheme (PFSES)
• How does Professional Institution View and Support PFSES?
• The Role of Safety Officer in PFSES

Who should attend?

• Consultants
• Contractors
• Law enforcers
• Engineers
• Health and safety professionals
• Public sector professionals related to construction works
• Site Agents, Project Managers, Environmental Officers, and Safety Officers
