Special Features of Overseas Academic Award Programmes

In an era of globalisation and fast environmental changes, some students prefer to study either overseas, or on programmes in Hong Kong offered by overseas universities. SPEED works with several well-known overseas universities in offering their programmes in Hong Kong.

Flexibility and Choice
Not only do these overseas award programmes at SPEED include full-fledged undergraduate programmes with various levels of entry points, they also include undergraduate programmes with a “Top-Up” arrangement i.e. these programmes cater particularly for students with various academic backgrounds such as Associate Degree and Higher Diploma qualifications or relevant professional qualifications or equivalent, where their previous tertiary study may be recognised for admission purpose. Students enrolled on these undergraduate top-up programmes would normally require 1 to 3 years of study.

In collaboration with overseas partners, the School offers programmes which cover a variety of specialisms such as accounting, business, finance, human resource management, logistics and supply chain management, and law.

Student Activities
To facilitate all-round development of students, extra-curricular activities are organised through the PolyU SPEED Student Affairs Sub-committee. Students on some of the programmes may take part in activities such as professional workshops, talks and seminars.

Financial Assistance
Non-means-Tested Loan
Students enrolled on any of the School’s overseas programmes are eligible to apply for the Government’s Non-means-tested Loan. Applications are obtainable from the Student Financial Assistance Agency (Tel: 2150 6223; 24-hour Enquiry Hotline: 2802 2345; and website: www.sfaa.gov.hk).

Continuing Education Fund
Some programmes have been included in the list of reimbursable courses for Continuing Education Fund (CEF) purposes. Information on CEF and the details regarding the eligibility of claiming course fee reimbursement under CEF are available at the Office of Continuing Education Fund (Tel: 3142 2277 and website: www.sfaa.gov.hk/cef).

Application and Enquiries
Programme commencement dates and application periods vary across different programmes. Dates for new intake and semester cycle are listed for individual programmes. Application for admission has to be made on specific application forms obtainable from SPEED Offices during the application period. Some application forms are available on the website www.speed-polyu.edu.hk. Please contact SPEED at 3400 2826 for further information.

Preparatory Programme for Bachelor of Laws (LLB)

University of London International Programmes, United Kingdom

SPEED is an Affiliate Centre for the University of London International Programmes. This means that in the considered view of the University of London, we have demonstrated a sustained commitment to high standards in respect of the teaching, support and administration of students of the University of London International Programmes.

This preparatory programme is offered in collaboration with Advance Tertiary College (ATC), Malaysia and Intech Training Centre (ITC), Singapore, and they are also the Affiliate Centres of the University of London International Programmes.

Introduction

The LLB degree of the University of London is of international standing. Most importantly it allows the graduates to apply for the Hong Kong PC.LL. programme, the English Legal Practice Course (LPC) or the Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC) to eventually qualify as a barrister or solicitor. A high number of graduates from this degree also find jobs easily in corporate and commercial sectors and even in the civil service.

Qualified graduates are required to take conversion examinations to satisfy the prerequisites of P.C.LL. Successful admission into the PC.LL is at the sole discretion of the course providers.

Programme Structure*

Non-degree holders

Scheme A

This is a degree in its traditional format. It is divided into 3 parts. Students are required to complete a total of 12 courses, out of which 8 are compulsory courses. The minimum duration is 3 years with 4 courses taken each year.

Scheme B

This is intended for students who wish to study at a slower pace. It consists of 12 courses to be taken over 4 years.

Degree holders

Degree holders may apply for either Graduate Entry Route A (minimum 2 years) or Graduate Entry Route B (minimum 3 years). Students studying under Graduate Routes have to take 9 courses, out of which 7 are compulsory courses.

Compulsory Courses

- Common Law Reasoning and Institutions
- Criminal Law
- Elements of the Law of Contract
- Public Law
- Land Law
- Law of Tort
- Law of Trusts
- Jurisprudence and Legal Theory (for Schemes A and B only)

Optional Courses

- Commercial Law
- Company Law
- Conflict of Laws
- Criminal Law
- EU Law
- Evidence
- Family Law
- Intellectual Property
- Succession

Please refer to the prospectus of the University of London International Programmes for more information about the programme structure and syllabuses.

Examinations

The LLB examinations are usually held in May/June every year. Students need to apply for entry to the examinations. Application for entry to the examinations should be made through the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority.

Teaching and Learning Support

This Preparatory Programme is taught by full-time faculty from Advance Tertiary College (ATC), Malaysia and Intech Training Centre (ITC), Singapore. Both ATC and ITC have proven track records of producing graduates with excellent academic results. Each course consists of at least 60 hours of lectures and 20 hours of intensive revision. Mock examinations will be conducted in December and March. Students will be provided with a set of comprehensive lecture notes for each chapter in every course on which they have enrolled. Apart from face-to-face teaching, students will also have access to the PolyU library, ATC and ITC online facilities, Teaching Mentor Student Assistance System as well as the University of London International Programmes study materials and Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). Guest lectures by academics from the University of London for selected courses may be arranged. Classes will be conducted on weekday evenings and over the weekend in PolyU campuses.

Entry Requirements

Applicants must normally be at least 17 years old, pass 2 “A” level subjects and 3 “O” level subjects; AND have competence in English acceptable to the University of London.

To be eligible for admission to the Graduate Entry Route, applicants are required to have a full first degree awarded by an institution acceptable to the University of London.

Application Period

Admission to University of London

Applications should be made for admission to the University of London International Programmes by 17 September 2012. Applications can be submitted online or by hardcopy. Detailed prospectus and application form for the University of London International Programmes can be downloaded from the University’s website at www.londoninternational.ac.uk.

Enrolment with SPEED

Applications for the April, May, July, September and October intakes of the Preparatory Programme will be invited in March, April, June, August and September every year respectively.

Preparatory Programme for Diploma in Law

University of London International Programmes, United Kingdom

SPEED is an Affiliate Centre for the University of London International Programmes. This means that in the considered view of the University of London, we have demonstrated a sustained commitment to high standards in respect of the teaching, support and administration of students of the University of London International Programmes. This preparatory programme is offered in collaboration with Advance Tertiary College (ATC), Malaysia and Intech Training Centre (ITC), Singapore, and they are also the Affiliate Centres of the University of London International Programmes.

Introduction
SPEED is one of the two institutions in Hong Kong permitted to teach the Diploma in Law programme which prepares students for examinations leading to the award of the University of London. It provides an opportunity for students who:

• satisfy the normal entrance requirements for the Bachelor of Laws (LLB) degree to reach first-year undergraduate level but without committing to a full degree; or
• intend to take the LLB degree but would like to gain a recognised intermediate award; or
• may not have had the chance to meet the above requirements but can demonstrate that they have the ability, motivation and maturity to study at this level.

Programme Structure*
This Preparatory Programme consists of 4 compulsory courses. Students may choose to enrol in all 4 courses on the same occasion (one year), or by 2 stages, each consisting of 2 courses (two years).

• Common Law Reasoning and Institutions
• Elements of the Law of Contract
• Public Law
• Criminal Law

* Please refer to the prospectus of the University of London International Programmes for more information about the programme structure and syllabuses.

Examinations
The examinations are usually held in May/June each year. Students need to apply for entry to the examinations. Application for entry to the examinations can be made through the Hong Kong Examinations and Assessment Authority.

Articulation
Graduates of Diploma in Law may gain direct entry to LLB Year 2.

Teaching and Learning Support
This Preparatory Programme is taught by full-time faculty from Advance Tertiary College (ATC), Malaysia and Intech Training Centre (ITC), Singapore. Each course consists of at least 60 hours of lectures and 20 hours of intensive revision. Student will further have 6 hours of legal research and English training, and also mock examinations (in December and March).

Students will be provided with a set of comprehensive lecture notes for each chapter in every course on which they have enrolled. Apart from face-to-face teaching, students will also have access to the PolyU library, ATC and ITC online facilities, Teaching Mentor Student Assistance System as well as the University of London International Programmes study materials and Virtual Learning Environment (VLE). Guest lectures by academics from the University of London for selected courses may be arranged. Classes will be conducted on weekday evenings and over the weekend in PolyU campuses.

Entry Requirements
Applicants must normally be 18 years old or above before 1 September in the year of registration and have a good command of English.

All applicants are required to attend an admission interview and also to sit for a written test. Selection for admission will be entirely at the discretion of SPEED based on the guidelines laid down by the University of London.

Attendance Requirements
Students are required to attend a course of instruction at an institution that is permitted to teach for this purpose. Students must comply with the attendance requirements of the institution. The University of London may refuse permission to sit an examination to a student who has not satisfied these requirements.

Application Period
Applications for the April, May, July, September and October intakes of the Preparatory Programme will be invited in March, April, June, August and September every year respectively.
